Skilled horsemen in the Buck Brannaman Style of horsemanship

Custom tack and saddles.

Individual attention. We enjoy tailoring each day to you.

Cattle Drives mid May through mid October on 75,000 acres of wide open meadows and timbered mountains.

Only 3 to 4 guests per wrangler.

A fine horse is selected just for you.

Jingle the horses in with the wrangler at first light in the mornings.

Hands on natural horsemanship from the ground up

Ride cross country to explore the surrounding mountainsides.

Ranch-style cattle working, sorting, cutting & penning.

Welcome to the Ranch!

With a 65% return guest rate, they just can't seem to get enough! Not only do you enjoy our fine well-taught horse herd, quality riding and cattle working experiences as well as camaraderie with our warm crew, but also the luxury of coming back to the ranch each evening to upscale down-home cookin' and first class log cabins. Experience the best of both worlds!

Occasionally we have non-riding guests come to the ranch. Although our emphasis is on our riding program, we do have mountain bikes available to explore old logging roads, fly fishing opportunities on the ranch or with a top fly fishing outfitter nearby on the Kootenai River, hiking in any direction from the ranch, mountain lakes to swim on those hot days, and Glacier National Park within a two hour drive. We recommend a rental vehicle for your own freedom if you aren't participating in the riding.

We are a cattle & guest ranch up in Northwest Montana with our main emphasis on our horse and cattle program. We ride and teach the Buck Brannaman style of horsemanship and put everything to use working cattle and exploring country. Riders of all skill levels are welcome to participate as much as they wish or just relax. We teach you how we've taught our horses and enjoy tailoring each day to you; whether it's continuing on with your horsemanship, heading out and moving cattle for the day on 75,000 acres of wide open meadows and timbered mountains, working cattle here at the ranch sorting, cutting, and penning, or leisurely picking your own path through the surrounding country as far as you can see.

Season Schedule

Throughout the season, furthering your horsemanship skills, leisurely riding to explore country, and learning to work our steers are always options to choose from during your stay.
